Dear ZZZZ

Congratulations on your award of $XXXX for [Project name].

This award is a Seed Funding Grant; part of the Rio Tinto Children's Diabetes Centre; a JDRF Global Centre of Excellence in Diabetes Research (Global CoE) program to encourage new and innovative research, researchers and translation ideas and projects.

The dates of your award are:

Start: ££/££/££££

End: $$/$$/$$$$

The amount of your award is: $20,000 AUD (excl. GST) paid in 2 instalments.

The terms and conditions of this award are that:

1. As an awardee of a Seed Funding Grant you are responsible to Scientific Program Subcommittee for your progress and achievement in relations to your Project.
2. Funding must be spent and acquitted by the end date on this letter.
3. Any unspent funds at the end of this period must be returned to the Global CoE unless otherwise negotiated and approved in writing.
4. 50% of the funds will be transferred to the awardees in the first instalment upon execution of this letter by the awardee. The remaining 50% of funds will be transferred after endorsement by the Scientific Program Subcommittee of the progress report 9 months from acceptance of award.
5. A progress report, in the template provided, must be submitted to the Global CoE Senior Program Manager at 9 months from acceptance of award:
 - a. The Scientific Program Subcommittee will endorse whether progress on the award is adequate, after which remaining funds will be transferred to the project account.
 - b. If progress is not considered adequate, the Scientific Program Subcommittee will provide direction on what the awardee is required to do to return the progress to an adequate level and will make a decision on what (if any) continued funds are transferred, plus any additional reporting requirements.
6. A presentation to the Scientific Program Subcommittee is required at the end of the grant period on project outcomes.

7. A three-page final report is to be completed no later than three months after award completion. The final report must include:
 - a. A lay summary of the award and what was achieved
 - b. A scientific summary of the award and what was achieved
 - c. How the funds were used
 - d. A summary of the benefits of the work, including benefits to the community, and how these benefits link with the mission and objectives of the Global CoE
 - e. What other awards/honours were achieved based on having this current funding available
 - f. A list of publications resulting from this current award
8. The Global CoE must be appropriately acknowledged on any publications/presentations/grant applications etc, arising from this funded Project in the following manner:

This research was supported by JDRF Australia (grant number 5-SRA-2021-1088-M-X).
9. Awardees are expected to abide by the general terms of governance and conduct for Global CoE Affiliates as set out in all applicable policies, as well as policies and procedures of the administering body Telethon Kids Institute, Perth, Western Australia.

To accept this award, and to confirm your compliance with the above Terms and Conditions, please sign below and return this letter to the Global CoE Senior Program Manager, at JRDF.GlobalCoE@telethonkids.org.au.

You will then need to liaise with the Senior Program Manager to arrange transfer of funds.
